Chamber Music of Joelle Wallach on November 28 Classical Discoveries Radio Marathon

Joelle Wallach's Runes and Ritual for violin, viola, cello and piano will be featured on WPRB Radio's Classical Discoveries Marathon, hosted by Marvin Rosen on Friday, November 28, between 9:30 and 10 AM, EST.

In observance of its 30th Anniversary of New York Women Composers, and its Co-founder Elizabeth Bell, Classical Discoveries will present a special 12-Hour Marathon totally devoted to music composed by NYWC members, beginning at 6 AM that day.

Runes and Ritual, commissioned by the James Piano Quartet, draws on the rich myth, magic and folklore embedded in the traditions of rural Virginia, where the James Piano Quartet had been in residence for several years. Runes and Ritual's vivid narrative borrows from indigenous musical gestures - spirituals, hollers, hymn tunes, lullabies and yelps - to transform and fuse them into a dramatic tapestry, engaging audiences - whether novices or chamber music aficionados - by evoking music's own inexplicable magic.
